Cheat Sheet—February 2024

Hello and welcome to our February 2024 Fritsma Factor Cheat Sheet. As we mentioned in January, The Fritsma Factor is a free and independent service of Precision BioLogic Inc., of Dartmouth, Nova Scotia, in affiliation with Affinity Biologicals, Inc. of Toronto, Ontario. You will notice that we receive patient questions from time to time. As a medical laboratory scientist, I [Geo] confine responses to laboratory test management and interpretation while maintaining confidentiality. There's no end of variety.

January 2024 QQ Summary: Platelet Function Tests

Our January 2024 Quick Question was a poll submitted by Dave McGlasson, asking, "What platelet function test do you use?" We had 43 responses. Please navigate to our January 2024 Quick Question Response for a summary of our findings.

February 2024 QQ Summary: Rosenthal Syndrome

Our February Quick Question is a quiz that asks participants to choose the numerical factor deficiency that has been historically named Rosenthal syndrome. In March, your responses may lead us to a discussion of DOAC safety and efficacy. Please add your comments.
